Divine Mercy of Jesus

There are two special prayers associated with this devotion. One is the Chaplet of Divine Mercy and the other is The Divine Mercy Novena.

The Chaplet can be said at any time or as a novena, and is especially beneficial when recited for the sick and the dying. Our Lord spoke of the Chaplet when He said, "Encourage souls to say the Chaplet which I have given you...Whoever will recite it will receive great mercy at the hour of death."

A second devotion is The Novena to the Divine Mercy. The Novena consists of a special prayer to be said on nine consecutive days starting on Good Friday and concluding on Mercy Sunday, the Sunday after Easter. Through it Jesus promised that on that day are opened, "All the divine floodgates through which graces flow."
